Special and Import Prices on Hyacinths, Tulips, Narcissi, Lilies, Rhododendrons, Hardy Shrubs, Hardy Plants, Roses, Etc.

HYACINTHS, TULIPS, CROCUS, ETC.

The prices quoted in this list on all Dutch Bulbs, Bermuda Lilies, Roman Hyacinths are for advance orders which must reach me not later than the 25th of June. To make these very low prices, which are in many instances lower than American wholesale prices, I must have my orders in advance, as I cannot take any risk of having stock remaining unsold on my hands. The bulbs will be delivered at the proper season, and need not be paid for until delivery. Orders of $25 and upwards will be packed in separate cases in Europe and shipped direct to Eastern customers by my agent in New York City, thus saving all extra charges for re-packing and transportation.

TERMS OF PAYMENT.

My terms of payment are invariably cash on delivery, which does not mean that I ship C. O. D., as I will not do so under any circumstances, I deliver the goods and mail bills at the same time, and expect payment within a few days. People unknown to me will please send references with their order. Those who wish to send cash in advance with their orders will be allowed a discount of 5 per cent. from the prices quoted in this list.

EARLY ORDERS

The earlier orders are given me the better I can have them filled. Some of my customers are now giving me orders to be delivered next spring. I sail for Europe on the 2d of July, and will personally select the stock for all import orders received by June 25th.

CLUB ORDERS.

No smaller quantities will be supplied than those quoted in this list, but it is suggested where these quantities are too large that two or three friends or neighbors could combine their orders to advantage and save transportation charges.

SPECIAL IMPORT ORDERS

Special orders will be taken to import from Europe anything desired in trees, shrubs or plants. For this service I charge a commission of 25 per cent., but as I buy everything from the growers at lowest wholesale prices, customers can depend on getting the stock for less money than it can be obtained in any other way. My knowledge of nursery stock and my experience in importing will save my customers from any mistakes in bringing over stock not suited to our climate or stock that can be bought to better advantage on this side.

PLEASE NOTICE

The date of delivery and the limit of time for receiving orders for the different classes of stock. Many orders were sent to me this spring too late to be filled.

REFERENCES.

Many of the leading amateurs and public parks find it to their advantage to have me buy all their stock for them. When desired, I will send list of these as references for my reliability and quality of stock delivered.

GRIFFIN'S UNEQUALLED TUBEROUS BEGONIAS.

About 25,000 of these were sold by me at retail this season, and the salable stock was exhausted early in the spring. Flower lovers who live in the vicinity or visit New York city should make a point of visiting the grounds of the Oasis Nursery Company (Westbury L. I., N. Y.), who will grow about fifteen acres (300,000) of these remarkable Begonias for me this summer. These fields of Begonias will be one of the greatest floral sights ever seen in the world. In addition to the fields, two large green houses will be filled with exhibition plants.

A Valuable Service for Buyers of Trees, Plants and Shrubs.

My business is twofold. I do landscape gardening and buy nursery stock of all kinds for amateurs. I buy only from reliable nurseries at lowest wholesale prices, and charge my customers a small commission for the service, thus insuring them the best quality of stock and the lowest prices (25 to 50 per cent. below the retail prices of nurserymen and plantmen). Every nurseryman is interested in selling his own stock, and especially interested in selling anything he is overstocked with. As I have no stock of any kind, my interest is to secure the best quality of stock and varieties for my customers. Many nurserymen grow a few specialties well—better than any of their competitors. My familiarity with the stock of all the leading nurseries of the world, and my special representation of many, enable me to secure the best of everything for my customers.

Send me a list of your horticultural wants (trees, plants, shrubs, lawn grass seed, garden supplies, pots and vases, garden statuary and fountains) for estimate.

LANDSCAPE GARDENING.

The majority of American suburban grounds are laid out and planted without the aid of professional advice. The result is almost always unsatisfactory, although often the expenditure would have secured most beautiful results if directed by skilled advice. I do landscape gardening—do it for people of exacting taste, to whom I refer. I make the plans, with estimates, purchase the stock necessary and superintend the work. I do any one or all of these things, satisfactorily as to results, moderately as to cost. For small grounds I can make satisfactory plans if furnished with a plan drawn to scale. For large grounds, and where extensive improvements are desired, a personal visit would be necessary, and can be arranged for on reasonable terms.

Single Second size Named Sorts	$ 75	$5 00	$45 00
Double " " " "	75	5 00	45 00

These second sized named Hyacinths will be found fine for forcing, and are highly recommended for those who desire extra good bulbs for bedding.

They embrace the leading named sorts of this list; are larger bulbs than those sold as mixed, and strictly true to name and color, thus giving exact shades wanted.

EXHIBITION HYACINTHS.

This class comprises monster bulbs, the finest grown, and will be sent with each name, color and shade, separate and marked.

It is a well-known fact to importers of bulbs that few of the VERY FINEST HYACINTHS of Holland find their way to this country, as they are chiefly marketed in Germany and England, at very high prices, for the use of wealthy amateurs.

These Hyacinths are commended to those who wish the very finest quality for exhibition or the decoration of the conservatory. They embrace the most magnificent colors, and choicest varieties of show Hyacinths, both single and double. Price, 20 cents each. $2.00 per dozen. $15.00 per 100.

DOUBLE TULIPS.

These are all very desirable for bedding purposes. White, red and yellow sorts of about the same height planted in lines of three or four rows of each color form, with their large rose-like flowers, beds of surpassing grandeur. Their flowers being double, are quite persistent, and being also later in blooming they serve to prolong the season of gorgeous beauty in the spring flower garden. Those sorts marked (*) are the earlier kinds which are not only valuable bedders, but succeed admirably if forced in pots. Those not so marked are not recommended for pot culture. A's flower together, B's follow, etc.; while those marked L are very late sorts.

---	------	-------

The Crocus is the first flower to bloom in the spring, and it is no unusual sight to see the ground covered with snow and the Crocus in bloom at the same time. They are entirely hardy, do not deteriorate and may be left undisturbed for years. It is a good plan to plant Tulip and Hyacinth beds full of them, as they bloom and are out of the way before the other bulbs flower.

A desirable effect is produced by setting Crocuses here and there over the lawn. It is only necessary to lift the turf and insert the bulbs two or three inches deep. They will care for themselves, blooming very early amid the grass and dying down to the bulb in ample time to be entirely out of the way of the lawn mower. Once planted they will remain uninjured in the ground and bloom for years. One of my customers planted 5,000 in his lawn last fall, and the effect when they were in bloom this spring was charming beyond description. All the more so that not one of his neighbor's places showed a sign of spring. The named varieties are very superior to the mixed ones, and at the low prices I offer them should be planted by all.

Scilla Siberica is one of the loveliest spring flowers. It has a color almost as deep as the sky itself. It is quite hardy and flowers out-doors at the same time as the Snowdrop, in front of which it has a charming effect.

If planted in pots and kept indoors it may be had in bloom as early as Christmas. Its magnificent bright blue color makes it suitable for any decoration whatever.

CHOICE NAMED PÆONIES.

(Fall Delivery.)

Prices good until September 1st, 10 per cent. discount if ordered before June 25th.

I have secured a collection of fifty fine named varieties of double named Paeonies in Europe at an unusually low price, and give my customers the benefit of it. Per dozen, $3.50; per 100 $22.00.

JAPANESE IRIS.

Prices good until stock is exhausted. Fall or spring delivery. If planted in the fall will bloom well the following spring.

I was the first in this country to advocate the beauty and usefulness of hardy herbaceous plants, and observe with pleasure their greatly increasing popularity. In this class of plants, the Japanese Iris, easily take a first rank, and there is no garden so fine in which they would not be worthy of a prominent position. They are often called the "Orchid Fleur de Lis," and in their coloring and marking perhaps more nearly approach Orchids in appearance than any other flower. Be this as it may, they are flowers of unique and splendid beauty, perfect hardiness and easy culture, I always use them in my work and strongly recommend them to my customers. I have made arrangements by which I can supply my customers the choicest named varieties from Japan, in about seventy sorts at the extremely low price of $3.50 per dozen, $25.00 per hundred. The varieties are the best, and equal to those offered by plantmen at from 50 cents to $1.50 each. They will grow and bloom in almost any soil and position, except a very shady one, but if the soil is made deep and very rich, and the bed kept flooded with water for a month before and during their blooming season, which is the latter part of June and early part of July, they will repay the extra trouble, and will make a grand floral display in June that would be difficult to surpass. They should be planted about one foot apart, and every second or third fall the plants should be taken up, divided and replanted.

LOW PRICES FOR HARDY HYDRANGEAS.

Prices good until stock is exhausted. Fall or spring delivery.

No more popular plant or shrub has ever been sent out than Hydrangea Paniculata Grandiflora, and I take great pleasure in offering my customers a large stock of splendid vigorous plants at such extremely low prices, that it will enable them to plant this effective shrub in quantity.

People who have only seen this Hydrangea grown singly as specimens have no conception of how beautiful and effective they are when planted in masses. They are planted in this way in Newport, R. I., which is famous for its fine gardens, and almost as famous for its Hydrangeas. These Hydrangeas can be planted in connection with other shrubby or in isolated beds, in the same manner as Cannas, Caladiums or other strong growing bedding plants. They are perfectly hardy, and once planted they are a permanent addition to the lawn or garden. When grown in beds or groups they should be planted about fifteen inches apart in very rich soil, and in early spring before they commence to grow cut back almost to the ground. Treated in this manner they will produce enormous panicles of flowers, and the bed will be a solid mass of bloom. They bloom profusely the same season planted. Try them. You will find them more than satisfactory.

No smaller quantities than those quoted will be furnished. It is suggested that when smaller quantities are wanted that two or three club together in ordering.

All of the above will bloom the first year, and are superior to the stock commonly retailed at 25 cents to $1.00 each, and sometimes at even higher prices.

SPECIAL OFFER OF GLADIOLI.

Prices good until withdrawn. Delivery at any time from November until June 15th.

For cutting, for the decorations of the house, or for any purpose for which cut flowers are used during the summer and fall months, no flower can be grown as satisfactorily as the Gladioli. The spikes of flowers are large, showy and very beautiful, and last a week in water after cutting. By planting at intervals from the 1st of April until the 15th of June they can be had in blossom from June 25th until frost. For cutting purposes they can be grown in the vegetable garden or any convenient place, and as they can be planted very closely, a large quantity can be grown in a very small space. They are of the easiest culture, failure being practically impossible, and it can be safely estimated that the bulbs will increase at least fifty per cent. every season. The bulbs can be wintered in any room or cellar that is free from frost. The bulbs offered below are strictly first-class, and are from the largest and best Gladioli grower in the world. The bright colored Gladioli are extremely effective if planted in masses in the margins of shrubbery. At these extremely low prices, which are really wholesale, they can be used in quantity. No smaller quantities will be supplied than those quoted, but one hundred will be furnished in four sorts and one thousand in ten sorts if desired. All first sized bulbs. Second sized bulbs can be furnished at still lower prices.

THE BEST HARDY PLANTS.

Prices good until further notice. Varieties marked (*) are pot grown and can be delivered throughout the year, and can be planted advantageously in the summer or early fall. Other varieties are grown in the open ground, and can be delivered in fall or spring. If hardy plants are planted in summer or early fall, they will bloom well the following season. The following list is the very best of the Hardy Perennials, and does not contain one weedy or trashy variety. Hardy plants not in this list will be supplied at equally low prices.

I can supply all plants suitable for hedging purposes at lowest prices, which I will quote on application. For an ornamental hedge there is nothing so beautiful as Retinispora Plumosa Aurea, and for a quick and inexpensive hedge nothing so satisfactory as California Privet. This is the hedge used so extensively at Newport R. I.

ROSES.

Can be supplied from November until April.

These prices are intended for a regular assortment of varieties, subject to my approval. Should special kinds be wanted in quantity, I will quote rates on application. After a long experience with Roses I have concluded that the imported budded Roses are practically worthless for general planting, and have decided to handle nothing but American-grown Roses on their own roots.

The above are net wholesale prices in England, to which must be added my commission, freight and charges. This stock is admitted free of duty. I attend to making all entries, re-packing and shipping, and I guarantee that my customers will receive the stock in perfect condition at the proper time for planting, and that it will not cost over one-half what the same stock can be bought for in this country. Orders should reach me not later than January 1st, 1893. Orders that reach me by June 25th I will personally select the stock for in England this summer. It cost my customers, including my commission, 52 per cent. in addition to prices quoted above to deliver this stock in New York this spring, and 64 per cent. in Pittsburgh. Orders of $25.00 and upwards are packed in separate cases and shipped direct to Eastern customers from New York city, on their arrival from England, by my agent, thus saving my customers all extra charges for re-packing and freight. See testimonials on next page for customers for whom I imported this spring.

Some Letters from Customers.

Pittsburgh, May 13, 1892.

Mr. J. W. Elliott—

Dear Sir: In response to your note of the 11th inst., I take pleasure in saying that the Rhododendrons and Azaleas imported for me by you this spring are entirely satisfactory. They are of splendid sizes, of better quality than one can obtain from American nurseries, and cost me at least one-third less.

Yours truly,
JOHNS McCLEAVE.

Flushing, N. Y., May 14, 1892.

Mr. J. Wilkinson Elliott—

Dear Sir: The Rhododendrons and Hardy Azaleas imported for me this spring are most satisfactory. The plants are strong, healthy and full of bloom buds, and seem to me remarkably cheap, judging by prices in our neighborhood.

Yours truly,
W. B. LAWRENCE.

Pittsburgh, May 16, 1892.

Mr. J. Wilkinson Elliott—

Dear Sir: The Rhododendrons and Hardy Azaleas which you imported for me this spring were all strong, vigorous, healthy plants, and covered with bloom buds. The Azaleas commenced blooming about ten days ago, and are now in perfection. The Rhododendrons are just commencing, one or two of the dark colored ones being in full bloom, but the others not yet opened. The flowers are perfect, and the colors as handsome as any that I have ever seen in this country.

Yours truly,
GEO. W. GUTHRIE.

New York, May 15, 1892.

Mr. J. W. Elliott—

Dear Sir: The Rhododendrons and Hardy Azaleas imported for my country place at Mamaroneck by you this spring are in every respect the finest I have ever bought, although I have paid double and treble the price. The plants are of the choicest varieties, perfectly vigorous, and healthy and full of bloom buds. The packing was perfection, not even a leaf was broken, and the plants could not have been fresher had they been grown within a mile of my grounds.

Yours truly
JOHN R. HEGEMAN.

Pittsburgh, May 14, 1892.

Mr. J. W. Elliott—

Dear Sir: That I could get a large stock of Rhododendrons, comprising more than 76 named varieties, and of Azaleas numbering 117 varieties of Mollis and Ghent and their remarkable Hybrids from the best nursery in England for the, to me, ridiculously low prices at which you catalogued them, seemed doubtful until I unpacked the stock this spring. The Rhododendrons were very much larger and more vigorous plants than obtainable in this country, loaded with bloom buds, and are certainly worth twice their cost. The Azaleas are more wonderful. They cost but one-third the retail prices of the best stock in this country and are twice as large, and as they now unfold their marvelous beauty under the generous rains and favorable temperature of the spring, I begin to understand the bargain made.

I am sure if every plant lover in the country could see my collection it would be duplicated a thousand times.

The Auratum Lilies imported from Japan for me were enormous, and at less than 12 cents apiece were finer than bulbs which cost me five dollars per dozen.

I am very grateful to you for an inexpensive garden that is admired and coveted by all who see it. I find I am a gainer in every way to have you buy all my trees, shrubs, plants and bulbs for me.

Very cordially yours,
JOHN MARRON.

Burlington, Vt., May 9, 1892.

Mr. J. W. Elliott—

Dear Sir: The Hydrangea Paniculata Grandiflora received were magnificent, the finest stock I have ever seen, and the price is the lowest. Sorry I did not order a much larger quantity.

Yours truly,
A. W. MCINTOSH,
Gardener for A. A. BUELL, Esq.
